

SATURDAY, APRIL 24, 2010

LWV salutes community volunteers

Top right, Rose Gale-Zoellick of Humboldt Community Breast Health Project, right, receives a civic contribution award from Maggie Fleming during the League of Women Voters of Humboldt County 2010 State of the Community Luncheon at the Eureka Adorni Center on Friday. The Breast Health Project was honored for its role in providing support and education for local women facing breast health or gynecologic cancer concerns.

Center right, Humboldt County Supervisor Clif Clendenen gives the State of the Community Address during the League of Women Voters of Humboldt County 2010 State of the Community Luncheon at the Eureka Adorni Center on Friday.

Bottom right, youth advocate and foster parent Rose Baker, right, receives a civic contribution award from Maggie Fleming during the League of Women Voters of Humboldt County 2010 State of the Community Luncheon at the Eureka Adorni Center on Friday. Baker has been a foster mother for hundreds since 1982, founded the local YouthAbility nonprofit for at-risk youth, and is known nationally as an expert in therapeutic parenting.

SHAUN WALKER/THE TIMES-STANDARD